World Refugees

Jesus Christ, you were born far from home, your parents forced to move from all they had known to satisfy those more powerful than you. Your early childhood was spent in Egypt, where your family fled to when your life was in danger. Today, as in all times and ages, people are forced from their homes by the powerful, and forced to leave all they’ve known by conflicts.

Give us compassion for refugees everywhere, Lord. May we never forget that those who are displaced are never so by their own will, and that those who need our aid deserve it as much as you did so long ago.

Amen.

From Fr. Todd

Hello Church!! Welcome to Fr. Gerald Harr from Gering. I'm glad he can be with you and pray with you. I have been attending a liturgy workshop at Notre Dame University.

I always miss you when I am away. See you next weekend.

The coming week there will be a reception at the office to say thank you and happy retirement to Charla our longtime Parish secretary. Charla has touched many lives and helped many people.

Her time here has been indeed a ministry. Thanks Charla!!!

The good thing is that Charla will still be around and involved in our Parish as a Parishioner. If you can't make it to the reception you could send or drop by a card to the Parish office. Melissa Webster will be our full-time Parish secretary. She has been working with Charla. I anticipate a smooth transition. Melissa will do a wonderful job.

I have been blessed with a wonderful staff. Melissa and Cindy serve as our Parish Secretaries.

Sandi is our Director of Religious Education. Kelly and Tom are our Maintenance crew. Amy is our Newman House Director. Our staff is committed and competent. They do great ministry.

Have a good week. Thank God for the many people that make St. Patrick's Parish a good place to know God and share Christ. Fr. Todd

Everyday Stewardship

What power lies in a name? Have you ever met a "David," "Holly," or "Jack" and said, "They don't look like a David, Holly, or Jack"? Sometimes our name actually adds something to our person. Peculiar people sometimes have peculiar names. Some people of tremendous strength have names that we deem strong as well. Sometimes we give nicknames to people because of some attributes they exhibit. In the Bible, names mean a lot. Saul changes his name to Paul when he converts. Adam means "man," as in the first man. Eve means "to live" or "to breathe." Elizabeth took great care to name her son John as God commanded, even if other family members did not understand why such a unique name not found in their lineage. It was a unique name for a child who had a unique future of preparing the way for the Messiah.

We have our baptismal names, our surnames, our Confirmation names, and our maiden names. But all disciples of Jesus also bear the same name: Christian. People may wonder what does a David, Holly, or Jack really look like, but they should never wonder what a Christian looks like. Unfortunately, too often those who bear this name don't resemble the characteristics embodied in the name. Simply, a Christian looks like Christ. A Christian acts like Christ. A Christian truly is Christ to a world that seeks to uncover the true meaning of his name.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Please remember in your prayers the recently deceased father of Frances Gonzalez.
