Seventeenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

July 26, 2015

Blessed are the merciful!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. TIM: “What is God’s plan? It is to make of us all a single family of his children, in which each person feels that God is close and feels loved by him; as in the Gospel parable (of the prodigal son), feels the warmth of being God’s family. The Church is rooted in this great plan. She is not an organization established by an agreement between a few people, but—as Pope Benedict XVI has so often reminded us—she is a work of God, born precisely from this loving design which is gradually brought about in history. The Church is born from God’s wish to call all people to communion with him, to friendship with him; indeed, to share in his own divine life as sons and daughters. The very word, “church”, evokes us, impels us to come out of our individualism, from our tendency to close ourselves into ourselves, and he calls us to belong to his family.” Pope Francis. General audience, St. Peter’s Square, May 29, 2013.

I will be gone this week, so there will be no weekday Masses. Safe travels to Chadron school administrators who will be traveling to Kearny for Administrator Days this week.

A great week to you all!

Inspirational

Social Ministry Quote: “God, give me the courage to be revolutionary as your Son Jesus Christ was. Teach me to stand up free and to shun no criticism. Make me free, make me poor in this world. Then will I be rich in the real world, which this life is all about.” ~Henri J.M. Nouwen

Next Sunday’s Readings ~ 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 2 ~ Exodus 16:2-4 (Manna from Heaven) Ephesians 4:17,20-24 (A New Self) John 6:24-35 (Christ, True Bread from Heaven)

Pope Francis & Religious Freedom—“Dear brothers and sisters who courageously bear witness to Jesus in the land blessed by the Lord, our consolation and our hope is Christ himself. I encourage you, then, to remain close to him, like branches on the vine, in the certainty that no tribulation, distress or persecution can separate us from him (cf. Rom 8:35). May the trials which you are presently enduring strengthen the faith and the fidelity of each and all of you!” - Dec., 21, 2014

Financial Help—Interested in help with finances, getting out of debt or ways to save for the future? St. Patrick’s will be hosting a Dave Ramsey Financial Peace University class starting September 8 at 6:30 pm at the Parish Center. The course is a 9 week course and the cost is $99 per household for the kit. Scholarship may be available. For more information, contact Charla at the office.

Marriage Saving—the Post Session Phase—The post-weekend phase of Retrouvaille is as crucial to the healing of a troubled marriage as the initial weekend experience. During the post-weekend sessions, the weekend technique is further developed and combined with additional tools to explore other areas of the marriage relationship. For confidential information about, or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on August 21-23, call 1-888-317-5654 or www.retrouvailleorg on the web.

St. Pat’s Part-time Maintenance Person Needed—Seeking an individual to work 20-25 hrs a week helping with maintenance of the church grounds and buildings. Responsibilities include: Summer maintenance: mowing, work on trees, bushes, etc, and maintain grounds.; winter: snow removal—on Sunday must be done by 8:30 am, by 4:30 pm on Saturday; all year the Arena must be kept clean and ready for activities. This includes the Pine Room, kitchen, bathrooms and gym area; schedule and coordinate all events in the Arena and Parish Center, including paperwork for all events, such as rental papers and insurance forms; odd jobs come up often: Repairs, painting, cleaning, light bulbs, etc. The Arena scheduling and the maintenance of the grounds could possibly be divided into two separate positions if need be. If interested, please contact the parish office, 432-2626.

Luncheon Meeting—The Chadron Christian Connection luncheon meeting will be July 14 at 11:30 am at the Country Kitchen restaurant. Guest speaker will be Ananda Peters from Hay Springs, a new U.S. citizen. The title of her talk is, “God’s Got the Wheel.” She will share the story of her life, from her upbringing on the east coast of Canada through adventures across the country, to the panhandle of Nebraska, God working through it all, drawing her closer to Himself. Special music will be by Cassie Sloan from Chadron, a Cardinal Singer. A Special Patriotic Feature by Art Halfhide from Chadron. - Sunday, September 13—Officer Installation & Dinner (?) at 5 pm or regular meeting at 6 pm
- Sunday, September 20—Officer Installation & Dinner (?) at 5 pm
- Sunday, October 11—Regular meeting at 6 pm

In Recognition—Jim Gardner will be attending the 133rd Supreme Convention of the Knights of Columbus in Philadelphia the first week in August as a delegate of the State of Nebraska.

He was elected to be one of seven delegates from Nebraska at the Nebraska State Convention held this past April in Kearney. Jim is a 4th degree Knight of Columbus member and has held several positions with our local Council in Chadron including Deputy Grand Knight, Grand Knight, Trustee, and currently serving as Financial Secretary. He also serves as the Faithful Navigator of the 4th degree Assembly and honor guard. He has been an active member in the Knights of Columbus since 1993 and has been a finalist for Nebraska Knight of the Year and Nebraska Family of the Year.

Jim said he is looking forward to the convention, but especially seeing the reverence and fanfare in the opening mass parade of 4th degree honor guard members, cardinals, archbishops, bishops and priests. Unfortunately, the Pope is not scheduled to attend as he is scheduled to be in Philadelphia later in September for a youth conference. Knights members from all 50 states and also Knights from several international councils will be in attendance.

Parish Health Notes— Treating Sunburns Your skin can burn if it gets too much sun without proper protection from sunscreen and clothes. To help heal and soothe stinging skin, it is important to begin treating sunburn as soon as you notice it. Put a cold, damp towel on your skin. Do this for 10 or 15 minutes several times every day or take cool showers. Use a moisturizer that contains aloe vera or soy to help soothe sunburned skin. Topical steroids (such as 1% hydrocortisone cream) may also help with sunburn pain and swelling. Ibuprofen can help reduce any swelling, redness and discomfort. Drink extra water. Sunburn makes you get very dry inside. If your skin blisters, leave them alone. Allow the blisters to heal and protect you from infection. Take extra care to protect sunburned skin while it heals. Wear clothing that covers your skin when outdoors. www.aad.org.

Foster Grandparents needed—Are you 55 or over and wanting to make a difference in the life of a child? We have the perfect opportunity for you!! As a Foster Grandparent, you're a role model, mentor and friend. You help children read, provide one-on-one tutoring, and guide children at a critical time in their lives. If you qualify, you can earn a tax-free hourly stipend. You will also receive paid training, paid holidays and personal time off! To become a Foster Grandparent, please contact Senior Volunteer Services at 308-432-3393.

Religious Formation News

If you are teaching this year and if you are interested in teaching religious education classes next year, please call the office and leave your name. Thank you for your support and the sharing of your gifts.

Position Opening—The position for Faith Formation Coordinator is open for the 2015/2016 Faith Formation term.

The Coordinator for Faith Formation and Youth Ministry shall be a Catholic possessing an active faith, who is able to translate this faith into action for others by promoting Gospel values and growth in holiness. The Coordinator of Faith Formation shall be committed to serve the people of the parish in a collaborative relationship with pastor, parish staff and parents. The Coordinator of Faith Formation is responsible for overseeing, directing, developing and implementing the parish Faith Formation for our young children, pre-school through 11th grade, the sacramental programs.

This job can be a full-time position or a part-time position. If interested please contact the parish offices at 432-2626.

Adult Enrichment

RCIA: Are you interested in learning more about Catholicism? Do you have friends, family members, acquaintances, interested in joining the Catholic Faith, or have fallen away from the faith and wanting to learn more about the Church?

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), is a program designed to help non-Catholics and non-practicing Catholics learn more about Catholicism through a series of classes, discussions, prayer times and ceremonies. There is no obligation to join the church, but the opportunity to do so is there.

This program is open to anyone who is interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. If you are not yet sure whether you want to become Catholic, you are still welcome to participate as you make your decision.

RCIA is a mix of praying, learning facts, discussing how these apply to our lives, participating in prayerful rites, and most importantly, using all these experiences to build and grow in a relationship with God.

Classes will begin in September. If interested, call the parish office, 432-2626.

Ogallala—Bishop Joseph Hanefeldt of Grand Island will be the featured speaker at the Magnificat Brunch hosted by the Ogallala Chapter, Our Lady of the Harvest, on Saturday, August 8 at Ogallala, NE at 9 am (MT). The Brunch will be served at the Quality Inn, off the I-80 exit, by Denny's.

Bishop Hanefeldt is one of four children who grew up in Center, NE, just north of Creighton. He was ordained to the priesthood at St. Ludger in Creighton on July 14, 1984, named a monsignor in 2010, and became the eighth bishop of the Diocese of Grand Island on March 19, 2015. Over the years, Bishop Hanefeldt has also served as spiritual director at Christians Encounter Christ retreats, Teens Encounter Christ retreats and for the summer program for seminarians for the Institute for Priestly Formation. He served two terms for the priest personnel board, on the priests committee for the Ignite the Faith Campaign and as a member of the Knights of Columbus, 4th degree. He enjoys photography, travel, cooking and visiting friends.

Registrations are required. Please send check for $15.00 to Julie Sestak, Box 142, Madrid, NE 69150. Julie's phone number is 308-326-4314 or contact her by email at jsestak1971@yahoo.com. The registration deadline is Monday, August 3.

One Minute Meditations

St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe

Ordained a priest at a young age,

Maximilian Kolbe was determined to combat religious indifference in his native Poland (now Ukraine) and published a successful magazine to preach the Gospel. When the Nazis invaded in 1939, they noticed Fr. Kolbe and he was eventually imprisoned at Auschwitz. One day, ten men were chosen to die as punishment for a prisoner escape. Fr. Kolbe offered himself instead of a family man. The man saved, Francis Gajowniczek, was present at Fr. Kolbe's canonization.

Hospital for sinners

It can be disappointing when fellow Christians don't seem to act Christ-like. Yes, the Church is made up of imperfect people who may let us down occasionally. Still, the Catholic Church was founded by Jesus, safeguards the Sacraments and helps us grow in holiness. And Jesus never disappoints.

"If we really want to love we must learn how to forgive."

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

Polish your Catholic compass

Our Catholic faith is like a compass that can point us to a clear path to Heaven. If we aren't careful to keep our compass in working order, however, we can get pulled off course and lose our way.

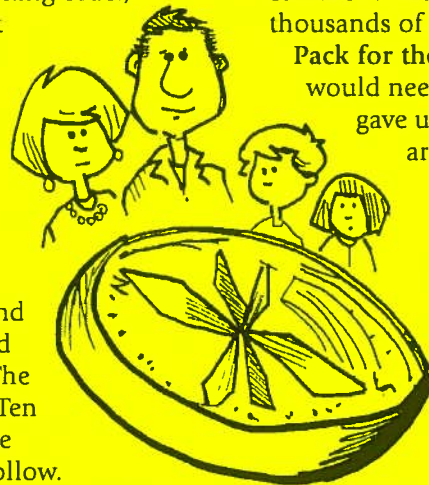

Keep a sharp lookout. God made us in his image and likeness and we will be happiest when we avoid temptation and do what is good and loving in his eyes. The Beatitudes and the Ten Commandments are roadmaps we can follow.

Follow the well-worn path. We don't have to forge our own path. We have the Catholic Church to guide us. For example, an excellent source of answers to puzzling questions is the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It is a summary of what Catholics throughout the world believe in common. The Church also offers us thousands of saints as models.

Pack for the trip. Jesus knew we would need extra strength so he gave us the Sacraments. They are encounters with God and provide sanctifying grace. Fortify your traveler's spirit with the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation as often as possible. Journey toward God's voice. While

God speaks to us in many ways, his voice is most clearly discerned in Scripture. A daily dose of the Word of God is a sure way to stay on the path to Heaven.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics gesture before the Gospel reading?

God created us to know him, to love him, and to serve him. In Mass, when we make the three Signs of the Cross on our foreheads, lips, and hearts before the Gospel reading, we are dedicating ourselves to God. We pray, "Lord, be on my mind, be on my lips, be in my heart." We ask God to be in us as we hear the Gospel, so that we can truly "love and serve the Lord" by our lives.

Still waiting for God to say "yes?"

Even the most faithful Christians can get discouraged in prayer. It can be disheartening when you have your heart set on something, pray hard for it, but the hoped for result doesn't happen. It is important to remember that God hears you and he always answers prayer. He loves you more than you can imagine and wants the best for you. In fact, he knows what you need better than you do.

Answers to prayer usually fall into one of three responses: 1) Yes, 2) Not right now, and 3) I have a better idea. The best approach is to make your request, trust him to do the right thing, and then look for his answer. Try not to get set on any one answer.

Perhaps God wants you to wait to increase your appreciation or because he doesn't think you are ready yet. Perhaps he has something better in mind. Whatever the answer – and there is always an answer – remember that it comes from his incredible and personal love.

from Scripture

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23
Clean hearts vs. clean hands

The religious leaders sent investigators to check up on Jesus and didn't like what they saw. Not only were Jesus and his followers ignoring some traditional rituals, Jesus scolded the leaders for being hypocrites when they did observe them. They were outwardly obedient so they could look holy instead of taking steps to actually be holy.

For example, devout Jews performed a cleansing ritual before each meal. The Pharisees liked to believe this ceremony kept them from being considered unclean. They were critical because Jesus' followers didn't perform this ceremony. Jesus told them that they were wrong to think being clean on the outside made them acceptable to God. God cares more about the state of our hearts than our hands.

Hypocrisy is when we pretend to be something we aren't and have no intention of becoming. Jesus called the Pharisees hypocrites because they went through the motions of worshipping God so they could appear holy in the eyes of the Jews. We become hypocrites when we follow religious practices carefully but allow our hearts to remain distant from God.

Q If Jesus paid for our sins, & why is Confession A necessary?

Jesus's sacrifice paid the price for our sins "once for all" (Hebrews 10:10), and made it possible for us to go to Heaven. It did not make us sinless. We retain the inclination to sin.

Fortunately for us, God's mercy is greater than our sins.

On Easter evening, Jesus gave to his Apostles the power to forgive (or not forgive) sins in his name. "He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained'" (John 20:22-23). "Christ has willed that...his whole Church should be the sign and instrument of the forgiveness and reconciliation that he acquired for us at the price of his blood" (CCC 1455).

In Confession, we receive God's loving mercy, his forgiveness, and the grace to make a fresh start. Although we experience Confession with the priest, he is acting in the person of Christ. Rather than deny the redeeming power of his sacrifice, the sacrament of Confession continues its effects.

Feasts & Celebrations

August 12 – St. Jane Frances de Chantal (1641). Born wealthy in Dijon, France, Jane married the Baron de Chantal and had four children. Widowed after only seven years, she founded the Order of the Visitation with St. Francis de Sales, for those unable to enter a convent. Altogether, she founded sixty convents.

August 19 – St. John Eudes (1680). Born on a farm in Normandy France, John was priest and parish missionary in the Diocese of Seez. Concerned with the spiritual state of the clergy, he reformed and started seminaries. To promote devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, he founded the Congregation of Jesus and Mary (Eudists).

August 22 – The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In 1954, Pope Pius XII established this feast to celebrate the Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Mary's queenship is rooted in scripture and tradition. As the mother of the King, Mary can intercede for us in Heaven.
