From Fr. Todd

Hello,

These days are beautiful. Enjoy these days of summer gently opening the door to fall.

GOSPEL MEDITATION -God gives us an invitation to have an abundant life. The banquet is ready, and the tables are set. Come! There is so much to attend to in the everydayness of our lives. We have plans, after all. There is never enough time and so much that needs to be done. There is work, children, and grandchildren, paying the bills, planning for retirement, figuring out the details of our next vacation, making sure we are on top of our game with work, planning social engagements, answering emails, texts, and getting our latest pictures on Facebook. There is always something. What is this about some banquet?

I need another party and commitment like a hole in the head. I can't manage what I already have, and someone is asking me to do more! Seriously? I saw the invitation; I think it came in the mail the other day. Did I leave it on the table? Oh wait, it may have gotten thrown away. I can't remember. In any case, I'm managing things pretty well on my own, I think. Thanks for thinking of me, but no thanks. My life is only as good as I make it and I have to be sure that all is in order! Oh, another invitation came today! This guy's being persistent. Now, I'm getting angry. I wish he would just leave me alone and stop with this invitation nonsense.

I woke up feeling a bit unsettled this morning. The kids have left the house, the grandchildren are busy with their lives, my retirement fund is losing ground, I'm worried about my health, folks have moved away, and I find myself alone. I am unhappy. I remember getting an invitation some time ago to a banquet promising new life and life in abundance. Did I miss something? I think I may have. I am finally discovering that life is not about me and my world. I think I've ignored the God who made me and the God who is the reason for my life, my hope, and my joy. It's always been about me. I have not really discovered Eternal Love. Is the invitation still open? Can I come to the banquet? I think I'd like to come. ©LPi

There's much in the Scriptures about the God who provides. There's much in the Scriptures about how servants react to the master. The message is a message of Stewardship. The Gospels these days can move us to ask--how are we taking care of what we have been given?

The Jesuits have a great tradition of Examen. We reflect on (examen) our recent interactions.

How have I built another up?
What am I avoiding?
Who am I avoiding?
How have I brought joy?
How have I brought disappointment?
Where is God in my life?
How am I sharing God with others?
Place yourself in today's Gospel.
Who do you relate to in today's Gospel?
What does the Gospel communicate to you?

May we engage the living word.

See the information on Dave and Doug's upcoming visit to our Parish. They will help us commemorate All Saints Day. It should good.

Peace,

Fr. Todd
