Second Sunday of Lent

February 21, 2016

Redeem us, Lord, from our distress!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. TIM: When Jesus takes the three disciples up to the mountain, it's meant to give them encouragement, an image to hold onto when times get hard. It's meant to do the same for us. Try to imagine yourself on the mountain with Jesus today. Would it be enough to transfigure your heart and soul?

This Wednesday evening we will have our listening session in the Arena with Bishop Hanefeldt at 7 pm. All are welcome.

Have a great week!

Inspirational

Social Ministry Quote: “It pleased God to make it easy for us to be saved. God didn’t attach salvation to knowledge or intelligence or wealth, nor to long experience or rare gifts that are not given to all. God attached it to something within the reach of everyone, absolutely everyone. Jesus attaches salvation to humility, to the act of making yourself little. That is all it takes to win heaven.”

~Bl Charles de Foucauld

Next Sunday’s Readings ~ 3rd Sunday of Lent, February 28, 2016 ~ Exodus 3:1-8,13-15 (The Name of God) 1Corinthians 10:1-6,10-12 (Avoid Overconfidence) Luke 13:1-9 (Time to Reform)

Pro-Life—Roe v. Wade

The term “September 11” has become a household phrase, representing a great tragedy when innocent people were callously murdered to further a selfish political agenda.

Yet another date, January 22, which is not nearly as well known, marks perhaps the most tragic day in our country’s history, anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision of Roe v. Wade, which somehow found in our Constitution the phantom “right” to have the innocent child in the womb aborted.

Since that decision in 1973, over 56 million innocent babies have been aborted in the U.S. —a number which far exceeds all the Americans killed in all the wars combined since our nation was founded.

Polls show that the majority of people do not realize the full implications of the Roe decision—for example, that the child can be aborted for any reason (or indeed no reason) throughout the entire nine months of pregnancy. The ignorance relative to Roe is by design. It is intentionally fueled by disinformation in the media.

Fortunately, both science and technology has advanced since 1973 so it is becoming increasingly difficult for the abortion industry to conceal and disguise the truth. For instance, 3D and 4D ultrasounds now provide a window into the womb, which clearly shows the humanity of the child and renders absurd their previous claim that “it” was “only a blob of tissue.”

Knowledge is power, and as more people gain knowledge about Roe v. Wade, the less power the multi-billion dollar abortion industry maintains, despite its every effort to mislead us and the young mothers whom they seek as clients.

What it means to be a Christian

Christians are slow to lose patience, but quick to be gracious. Christians look for ways to be constructive, even when provoked.

Christians restrain from trying to impress others with their own importance.

Christians practice good manners.

Christians are not “touchy,” even when insulted.

Christians think the best, not the worst, of others.

Christians do not gloat over the wickedness of other people.

Christians are pleased to reach out a hand to someone in need.

Above all else, Christians exhibit the love of Christ in their hearts and in their lives.
