Twenty-sixth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

September 27, 2015

Your word, O Lord, is truth!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. TIM: This week Faith Formation classes and Confirmation classes will begin Wednesday evening, September 30. This year we will begin the school year with the Mass. Preschool through 6th grade Mass will be at 5:30 pm at the church. 7th grade through Confirmation (11th grade) Mass will be at 7 pm at the church. Parents are encouraged to celebrate Mass with their children. Classes will follow the liturgies.

Thank you for your generous hospitality to Fr. Dickman from the Maryknoll Fathers. He was very impressed with your generous support and words of kindness towards his mission in the church.

This month our Annual Diocesan Appeal comes to an end. We are short $4,367.50. If you have yet to give, please pray about your support towards our parish and our Diocese. Please complete your pledges as well.

Happy fall and have a great week!!

Inspirational

Social Ministry Quote: “In a time of desolation, never forsake the good resolutions you made in better times. Strive to remain patient—a virtue contrary to the troubles that harass you—and remember that you will be consoled.” ~St. Ignatius of Loyola

Next Sunday's Readings ~ 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 4 ~ Genesis 2:9-11 (Man's Companion) Hebrews 2:9-11 (Christ Our Brother) Mark 10:2-16 (Unity of Marriage)

Pope Francis & Religious Freedom—“In the end, what kind of dignity is there without the possibility of freely expressing one's thought or professing one's religious faith? What dignity can there be without a clear juridical framework which limits the rule of force and enables the rule of law to prevail over the power of tyranny? What dignity can men and women ever enjoy if they are subjected to all types of discrimination?” - Nov. 25, 2014

Sister Parish—Be sure to check out the letter and pictures sent to us from our sister parish, Our Lady of the Sioux in Oglala, SD. They are on the bulletin board in the church just outside the Sacristy.

Fall Retreat—Divine Mercy: Love of the Father through the open side of Christ. Catholics Encounter Christ is hosting a one-day retreat on Saturday, October 17, at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish Hall in Gothenburg. Knights of Columbus News

- Sunday, September 27—Installation of Officers' Dinner, 5 pm
- Sunday, October 11—1st Degree Installation, 5 pm with regular meeting to follow, 6 pm
- Sunday, November 8—Regular meeting, 6 pm

Attention Knights of Columbus—We would like to invite you and your wife or significant other and widows to join us for the Knights' Installation of Officers Sunday, September 27 at 5 pm in the church. The social and steak dinner will follow in the Knights' Room. The cost will be $7.50 each or $15.00 per couple. Please RSVP by Tuesday, September 22 to Tom Yeradi, 432-3569.

It would be great to have everyone join us for both the Installation and the dinner.

A note from the parish office—Please remember to report any change in your status to the parish office—such as address, phone number, name, etc. This will help save time and money and is greatly appreciated!

We have some unused Hewlett-Packard Inkjet print cartridges that are no longer useful in the parish office. If you have an HP printer and would like to see if we have the number you need, please call the parish office, 432-2626.

Box Tops for Education—We will be collecting Box Tops for Education to help our schools obtain materials they need. If you would like to help, please drop yours in the offering basket or drop off at the office and we will get them to the schools. Thank you and a huge thanks to those who have already contributed!

Parish Health Notes—Acetaminophen is found in more than 600 different prescription and over-the-counter medicines. These include pain relievers, fever reducers, cough, cold and allergy medications, as well as sleep aids. It is the most common drug ingredient in America.

When you take acetaminophen as directed, it is safe and effective. But there is a limit to how much you can take in one day. Taking more acetaminophen than directed is an overdose and can lead to liver damage.

Follow these three steps to help you take acetaminophen safely:

1. Always read and follow the label before taking any medicine. Never take more acetaminophen than the label says. Taking too much can lead to liver damage.
2. Know if your medicines contain acetaminophen. You need to know if acetaminophen is in the medicines you take so you can avoid taking too much. Here's how to find out: *If you're taking an over-the-counter medicine, check the front of the package and the "active ingredient" section of the Drug Facts label for the word "acetaminophen." *For prescription medicine, look for the word "acetaminophen" or a shorter version such as "APAP" or "Acetam" on the label.
3. Never take two medicines that contain acetaminophen at the same time. Don't take two or more medicines that contain acetaminophen at the same time. Taking too much acetaminophen can cause liver damage.

Border Crossers

A retired minister often relaxed by sitting on his deck and letting his mind roam while he fed peanuts to squirrels. He named one particular squirrel Squeak because it often squeaked as if to say, "Bring out the nuts!"

Although there were many squirrels that came for the picnic, Squeak was the only one courageous enough to reach out for a nut held between the man's fingers. The pastor realized that it took bravery for Squeak to cross the unseen border between the yard and the hand holding the nut. Squeak was willing to do what other squirrels would not—take a risk to gain a reward. Squeak was a braver border crosser.

The preacher thought, "Shouldn't Christians be daring border crossers as well?"

He thought about the Christians throughout history who had put their lives on the line for the cause of Christ: the apostles—most of whom were martyred; the countless missionaries who established churches, schools and hospitals in lands where the name of Christ was unknown. Church history is full of stories about Christians who crossed borders to tell the "old, old story of Jesus and his love."

Are you willing to be a border crosser for Christ's sake?

FAITH FORMATION / YOUTH MINISTRY
2015 – 2016
PRE-K THROUGH 10TH GRADE INFORMATION
