"Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

Vocations

Families Grow Vocations. Teach Bible Stories: Especially when the children are young, introduce them to the hundreds of stories in the Bible. Begin with a children's Bible and give them Bibles through the years that correspond to their understanding of the Faith. Let the Bible stories be a base for talking to your children about the virtues, right and wrong, life and death, etc.

Parish Health Notes Rethink Your Drink

With the extreme temperatures, hydration is important for all to avoid health risks. Follow the tips below to make the best choices:

- ◇ Choose water, diet or low-calorie beverages instead of sugar-sweetened beverages.
- ◇ For a quick, easy and inexpensive thirst-quencher, carry a water bottle and fill it throughout the day.
- ◇ Don't "stock the fridge" with sugar-sweetened beverages. Instead, keep a jug or bottles of cold water in the fridge.
- ◇ Serve water with meals.
- ◇ Make water more exciting by adding slices of lemon, lime, cucumber or watermelon.
- ◇ Add a splash of 100% juice to plain sparkling water for a refreshing, low-calorie drink.
- ◇ When you do opt for a sugar-sweetened beverage, go for the small size. Look for 8-oz cans which contain about 100 calories.
- ◇ Be a role model for your friends and family by choosing healthy, low-calorie beverages.

Water is always the healthiest choice. Choosing the right drink can limit intake of hidden calories and help contribute to a healthier lifestyle. For more information, log onto: www.cdc.gov.

FROM FR. TODD

Hello Church!! I continue to discover and become more acquainted with our Parish and our city. Much is going on. This is a good place to be. This is a good place to grow in faith.

Mark your calendar for Saturday night August 6. Bishop Hanefeldt will be here to install me as your Pastor. This installation is called for in Canon Law where there is a short ritual and prayer that makes my being here official. There will be a Parish potluck afterward. Look for more information and plan to attend. Have I said it before? It is worth repeating—I am glad to be here!!

Something else for your calendar. Frank Runyeon will be here August 29, 30, 31. His visit is being organized by our Faith Formation program. Everyone of all ages should attend. I have seen him in the past. He is very good. He has an interesting background. He has traveled the world as he brings folks a faith-filled message in a very entertaining and engaging way. Q

July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story?

A

Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as “The Infancy Gospel of James.” Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus’ life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James’ infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary’s parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

Long before Grandparents’ Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior’s hu-
