Solemnity of All Saints

November 1, 2015

Come to me all you who labor,
and I will give you rest!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. TIM: Let us all rejoice in all the men and women, blest in the eyes of the Lord who celebrate the heavenly liturgy. This weekend we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. Our readings and prayers will be commemorating the Feast of all Saints. In 609 or 610 AD, the Roman Pantheon was dedicated on 13 of May under the title "S. Maria ad Martyres." Many see in this the origin of All Saints Day. Pope Gregory IV (827-844) transferred the feast from May to November 1, adopting perhaps the English-Gallican practice dating from the first quarter of the 8th century.

This weekend we will observe All Souls. The souls of the just are in God's hands. Christ the Good Shepherd died for us while we are still sinners. He is the resurrection and the life. If we have died with him, we shall also live with him. Rooted in ancient Christian tradition (2nd Century, Tertullian), St. Odilo of Cluny, established a memorial of all the faithful departed in 988. It was accepted in Rome in the 13th century. We will commemorate our beloved dead of our parish who have died in the past year.

Our Annual Diocesan Appeal comes to an end this weekend. Thanks to all who have given this year for our obligation. Results will be posted in the near future.

I hope that all the adults and young ones who participated in the Trunk or Treat on Wednesday had a good time. It is an enjoyable time.

It is the time of year where a lot of the fall sports and events are coming to a close. There are a few left to take place. However, congratulations to all those who participated in the fall programs and all those who have supported these this year! A good Season!

Newman is doing well. We continue to have good turn outs on Wednesday evenings. Thanks to all board members who are helping run the House until we find a new director! High Fives to you all!

We are coming to a season where there are a lot of school activities such as fall and Christmas concerts and musicals and other activities. Please support our children in their talents in these areas and their teachers and paras who help put these all together.

Have a great week!!

Inspirational

Social Ministry Quote: "Charity begins today. Today somebody is suffering, today somebody is in the street, today somebody is hungry. Our work is for today: yesterday has gone, tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today to make Jesus known, loved, served, fed, clothed, sheltered. Do not wait for tomorrow!" ~Bl. Teresa of Calcutta

Next Sunday's Readings ~ 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 8, 2015 ~ 1Kings 17:10-16 (Food from God) Hebrews 9:24-28 (Christ's Sacrifice for Sin) Mark 12:38-44 (Almsgiving)

Word of Life, Oct 2015: Respect Life Month—"When I meet another parent of a child with Down Syndrome, there is usually a moment of instant recognition and understanding. ... The secret we share is the fundamental truth of our existence: every life is a good and perfect gift. ...Our love for them has nothing to do with what they can or can't do. We love them simply because of who they are."

Safe Environment

Spotlight on... what the Church is doing to prevent abuse. Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the United States has made a renewed commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse and the healing of individuals harmed by abuse. Over 4.4 million children have been educated in signs of abusive relationships and how to seek help. Almost 2 million adults have been trained in recognizing and reporting abuse. Catholic institutions across the country are dedicated to creating safe environments for children and providing assistance to victims. A special feature will be Keep Chadron Beautiful by Jackie Baily. For reservations please contact Darlene at 432-5432 or by email at yantzi@gpcom.net no later than 5 pm Saturday, November 7. Complimentary nursery is available by reservation and first time guests are free.

Parish Health Notes—Quit Like A Champion! Each year, the American Cancer Society (ACS) sponsors the national event, the Great American SmokeOut, on the third Thursday of November, encouraging smokers to go the distance and finally give up smoking. About 42 million Americans still smoke cigarettes, and tobacco use remains the single largest preventable cause of disease and premature death in the USA. There are also about 12.5 million cigar smokers and 2.3 million who smoke tobacco in pipes. This year's theme is QUIT LIKE A CHAMPION ... It's a race for your health, and starts today!

Risks of Tobacco Use/Exposure:

- *Heart and blood vessel problems include blood clots and aneurysms (leading to strokes, heart attacks, blood clots in the lungs, etc.), poor blood supply to the legs, high blood pressure, erectile dysfunction
- *Cancer, especially in the lung, mouth, larynx, esophagus, bladder, kidney, pancreas and uterine cervix
- *Poor wound healing, especially after surgery
- *Lung diseases such as emphysema, chronic bronchitis or asthma that is harder to control
- *Problems during pregnancy, including low-birth-weight babies, premature labor, miscarriage, stillbirth, cleft lip and/or cleft palate
- *Decreased ability to taste or smell
- *Damage to sperm, leading to infertility
- *Eye diseases, e.g., cataracts or loss of vision due to increased risk of macular degeneration
- *Gum disease including loss of teeth
- *Wrinkling of skin due to loss of collagen
- *Increased risk of type 2 diabetes (30-40% greater in smokers than non-smokers) and difficulty in diabetes control
- *Generalized inflammatin (e.g., contributing to rheumatoid arthritis) and decreased immune system function
