Second Sunday
in Ordinary Time

January 17, 2016

We believe in the love
God has for us!

FROM THE DESK OF FR. TIM: “At the beginning of his public life, at the marriage of Cana, when the Son of God works the first sign, awakening faith in the disciples, (cf. John 2:11), it is Mary who intervenes and directs the servants towards her Son in these words: ‘Do whatever he tells you’ (John 2:5).” (ecclesia in America; John Paul II, January 22, 1999).

This weekend we celebrate the Marriage Feast at Cana. Remember all couples in your prayers, the Sacrament of Marriage, those who have been married a number of years, strong marriages, those who struggle and newlyweds.

Have a great week!

Special Offering—Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. In Peru, the 14 villages of Chazuta, in Moyobamba, are all located away from the city center, with the most remote only accessible by boat. The faithful in these communities do not have access to catechetical formation, and members often feel separated from the life of the universal Church. Through a grant from the Collection for the Church in Latin America, the religious congregation of the Missionaries of Jesus was able to provide faith formation, spiritual retreats, and workshops to nearly 250 people. Upon completion, participants were better equipped to help others deepen their faith and answer questions. The program also renewed their sense of commitment to their parishes and created stronger bonds within their own families. Through this program, members of the Chazuta villages felt the love and support of the universal Church. Please support programs like these and give generously in next week's collection. For more information, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Prayer Line – If you have a prayer request, please call Darlene Yantzi, 432-5432; Mary Baehler, 432-4994.

Inspirational

Social Ministry Quote: “God does not command that you must utterly forgo creaturely consolations; indeed, God created all things to serve you. But God did command that you use them with moderation, sobriety, and temperance, that you share them cheerfully with the needy, that your possessions not be your master but you theirs, and that you use them to attain God.” ~St. Robert Bellarmine

Next Sunday's Readings ~ 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 24, 2016 ~ Nehemiah 8:2-4,5-6,8-10 (God's Law) 1 Corinthians 12:12-30 (One Body) Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21 (Proclaiming the Good News)

Parish Health Notes—5 Tips to Improve Your Life.

1. Smile more. It is well known that the simple act of smiling can make you happier and healthier. Smiling activates the release of dopamine, endorphins and serotonin, neurotransmitters that help reduce stress.
2. Maintain a health and fitness regimen. The health impacts of regular physical exercise are widely known to reduce stress, fight disease and improve mood, energy and sleep.
3. Schedule personal time. There is a growing body of evidence suggesting that the most productive people are not actually the busiest but rather those who prioritize their free time—for family and activities completely unrelated to their jobs.
4. Don't commit to things you can't do. Not overextending yourself will save you time, and when you do commit, you'll actually be able to follow through.
5. Use your calendar. One of the best ways to stay on top of your goals is to schedule—relentlessly. Managing your to-do list in an online calendar will help you miss fewer deadlines, keep you organized and ensure that you are prioritizing your most important tasks. www.forbes.com

Special Masses

Bishop to celebrate Mass for Consecrated Life at St.

Mary's Cathedral, January 26—Pope St. John Paul II declared February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, to be observed as World Day of Consecrated Life. All of the Sisters of the Grand Island Diocese have been invited to the Holy Mass.

To show support to the Consecrated Life, all are invited to attend.
